

MARZENA RECIO GROMOWSKA

PROFILE

Currently looking for a career change to develop my skills as a developer.

As a technology enthusiast, I always have had a deep curiosity to find out 'How Stuff Works'.

Highly motivated individual with the ability to face new challenges, meet project goals with high level of commitment and cope under pressure with tight deadlines. Moreover, I have a creative thinking and a problem solving approach, along with a strong team-playing attitude.

Committed to adapting to new situations in order to succeed customer and stakeholder's goals while maintaining a great work environment among multicultural teams.
